M.R. 25711

In re: Supreme Court Probation Policy Advisory Board

Order

Effective December 1, 2012, the Supreme Court Probation Policy Advisory Board was created. Its purpose is threefold: (1) to advise the Administrative Office of the Illinois Courts on policy matters and programming in carrying out the duties and responsibilities of Illinois' probation and court services departments; (2) to provide a formal venue for communication, review, analysis and exchange of information; and (3) to identify opportunities, resources and strategies to advance probation's mission.

The Board is composed of fourteen members appointed in the following manner: three members from the First Judicial District and one member from each of the other four Judicial Districts; four members representing each functional area of probation and court services (adult probation, juvenile probation, pretrial services and juvenile detention); two "at-large" members (not from any particular district; one of whom may be retired); and one member who is the current President of the Illinois Probation and Court Services Association (IPCSA). Membership is limited to senior level management, excluding the IPCSA representative.
